albertoparada.com

Alberto Parada's jewelry is handcrafted and manufactured in the United States using natural, environmentally friendly materials of the highest quality. With a strong commitment to the earth's future, Alberto is proud of his recognition as a green designer and looks forward to bringing more attention to eco-consciousness in the jewelry industry. Alberto's jewelry contains only HARMONY™ gold, which is recycled, refined and produced by Hoover & Strong based in Richmond, Virginia. Alberto chooses 100% recycled gold so his jewelry does not contribute to the environmental destruction and waste caused by precious-metal mining. He crafts his jewelry using only conflict-free diamonds and fair-trade gems.
